

Law

Why choose Law?

- AS Level Law offers a comprehensive introduction to the legal system in England and Wales
- The course encourages students to consider contemporary developments to the legal system, along with recent legislation and recommendations
- It promotes analytical and critical thinking skills, as well as effective discussion and debate
- The subject provides a good foundation for a wide variety of degree courses and professions
- Students will relate issues on the course to extracts from television programmes and learn to spot artistic licence in popular series such as 'The Bill' and 'Judge John Deed' !

Course Content

Unit 1 - Legal Structures and Processes

Unit 2 - Legal reasoning, Personnel and Methods

All Units are assessed in the Summer through written examinations.

Practical Activities – The Legal System in Action

As part of the programme of study, students will experience visits to the courts and have current legal practitioners come in to school to give talks

Department Information

Mr. R. Davies – Law Graduate, Sixth Form Tutor

Progression/Careers

As well as a being a highly respected A Level subject, study is particularly applicable for those considering careers in;

- all braches of the legal profession
- accountancy
- the police force
- social work
- business, purchasing and retailing
- politics
- the civil service
- local government