

Year 10 Interhouse Football

This years Interhouse Football for year 10 was played on Wednesday 31 March. All pupils who took part enjoyed the warm sunshine and played the game in a fair but competitive spirit. Special mention should be given to the 8 Powys players whose attendance ensured all fixtures were completed. Throughout the matches two players stood out as "Men of the Tournament" for their skill and effort making them good team players. These were James Gill and Kevin Miller. However praise should be given to all players who took part and helped make a successful tournament.
