

Year 8 Interhouse Football

This years Interhouse Football for year 8 was played on Thursday 1st April. All pupils who took part played the game in a fair but competitive spirit. The final round of games game Clwyd and Powys the chance to win the tournament. In the end the team spirit of Clwyd was too strong against the individual creative skills of the Powys players.

Throughout the matches one player stood out as "Player of the Tournament" for their skill and leadership qualities, who was Phil Killa. However praise should be given to all players who took part and helped make a successful tournament.

The results of all fixtures and the final standings are listed below.
